(Wycliff)

George Fletcher grew up in a Christian home and heard the call to missions at a young age. This call led him to change his college plans. After studying at a few Christian institutions and graduating from Spartan in Tulsa (aviation), George attended a training program for Wycliffe Bible Translators. It was at this Wycliffe training that George met his wife Alda. The Fletchers started their ministry in Mexico where George served as a pilot with the JAARS program (Jungle Aviation And Radio Service). George and Alda went on to serve in Alaska, Ecuador, and the Philippines. George spent his later years working at JAARS headquarters in North Carolina, with a short stint in China.

The Fletchers retired to Go Ye Village where both were active in providing music for fellow residents. Alda passed away in 2014. George has slowed down in recent years, but he continues to play his flute and participate in prayer meetings as he is able.

TBC began supporting the Fletchers in 1957. They were our second global partners, and George is currently our oldest partner!
