Home: Texas
Area of ministry: Ecuador, Colombia
Ministry focus: Pilot service, photography, public relations, support staff, administration, etc. with Wycliffe
TBC global partner since 1962

Dorothy DeVoucalla is a retired global partner to South America; she has been a TBC partner for over 60 years! Dorothy was born in Texas and came to know the Lord at a young age. After hearing and wrestling with the Lord over the call to missions, Dorothy attended Dallas Bible School where she met her husband, George. George and Dorothy spent their honeymoon doing missionary-prep survival training in southern Mexico!

Dorothy, George, and their two children served with Wycliffe in Ecuador and Colombia with pilot service, photography, public relations, agriculture, support staff, and administration. After George hit Wycliffe's pilot retirement age, he and Dorothy continued their service in the areas of administration and recruiting.

George and Dorothy retired to Texas, where George passed away in January 2022. Dorothy lives in Texas near family.

Dorothy loves to emphasize that “I am praising God for his gracious care and provision throughout my life.”
